Shortly after Davis departed for California and, it is said, sold stock in that state without first obtaining a permit from the state board of corporations. WORKMEN PAID

BIG WAGES AND

EXPECT RAISE

(By Associated Press)
ROME, Italy, Jan. 5.—The Italian government is facing an almost unsolvable problem in the question of the cost of the nation's bread. During and since the war the price of bread was kept down artificially, the government paying $1,000,000,000,000 and even lately $1,250,000,000 yearly as the difference between the actual cost of the flour and the price paid by the consumer.

The price of a kilo—2.15 pounds of ordinary bread used to be equivalent to nine cents, or of a finer quality 11 or 12 cents; now the price for the same quantity of inferior bread is 21 cents a kilo, and the Italian working class utterly refuse to pay the balance which would increase the cost to them to 40 cents or even half a dollar a kilo.

Italian workmen are now paid wages which compare favorably with the salaries doled out to officers in the army or heads of government departments and do not hesitate to pay enormous sums for wine, tobacco and luxuries for their table. A mason, blacksmith or cabinetmaker used to consider himself well paid with less than a dollar a day. Now they earn $6.50, $7 and $8 a day, and look forward to having more in the future.

MAYOR OF

CORK NOW

IN AMERICA

(By Associated Press)
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Jan. 5.—Daniel O'Callahan, lord mayor of Cork, who arrived here yesterday as a stowaway on the American steamer Westcannon in company with Peter MacSwiney, brother of the late Terence MacSwiney, declared today that editors of New York and the nation had invited him to testify before the commission of the committee of 100 at Washington investigating the Irish situation. The statement answered that of Frederick C. Howe, chairman of the commission, who said last night that the mayor had not been asked to appear before the commission.

"The invitation was extended by New York people several months ago," Mayor O'Callahan said. Immigration Inspector Parker, in charge here, said he still was awaiting word from Washington as to the admissibility of the Irish official.
